GRADE A PLUS Presents Death by Chocolate

West Burlington, Iowa, Jan. 5, 2012 – GRADE A PLUS will host the eighth annual Death by Chocolate, a fundraiser to help support the organization’s programs and services. The event is scheduled to begin at 7 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 11 at The Drake, 106 Washington Street, Burlington.

GRADE A PLUS (Great River Alcohol and Drug Education Alliance and Parents Linking in United Support) is a comprehensive substance-abuse and healthy lifestyles program. The organization’s efforts are focused on creating healthy communities and healthy youth.

Death by Chocolate will feature chocolate creations from local businesses. The event also will feature a silent auction of theme baskets created by areas businesses and individuals. New to the event this year is the “Choco Challenge” – for those that want to be the next Willy Wonka.

Prizes will be awarded for the best chocolate cookie, cake and dessert and will be featured for a period on the menu at The Drake.

Tickets for the event are $20 and are available at the door or in advance from GRADE A PLUS,
(319) 752-6027. Patrons of The Drake who show their Death By Chocolate ticket on February 11 will receive 10 percent off their meal purchase.
